It's winter in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Drusilla Riehl's decisions are impacting the entire family. Just when she thinks that she has everything sorted out, God sends her a reminder that His plans for her future that cannot be anticipated. As she struggles to accept God's plans, Drusilla learns an invaluable lesson with the help of her special friend. Follow the story of this young Amish woman as she comes of age in the winter of her life, balancing her commitment to faith, family, and friends.

The Amish Seasons Series, a four-part series, follows the story of Drusilla Riehl as she passes through the seasons of life. An Amish Winter is the final book in the series. The first of a four book series, An Amish Spring introduces readers to the Riehl family and their Amish community, both Amish and Mennonite, and will be sure to delight as you learn more about the Amish religion and culture from Sarah Price, one of the leading bestselling authors of Amish Christian fiction who bases her stories and books on authentic experience growing up Mennonite and living among the Amish.
