At one time the two had been part of a close-knit group of friends, but that all changed thanks to one game of Seven Minutes in Heaven. Holden can't understand why Bev is avoiding him. He can only hope tonight's festivities will give them the time needed to mend old wounds. But one look at her face tells him he's in for a night of disappointments. The birthday surprise is on them though, because they're receiving a gift neither will ever forget.
