A family's worst nightmare: their teenage son has been drawn into the Dark Web

“A gripping mystery with realistic characters and a troubled detective on the case.” Beth Boyd

"Fantastic book, I couldn't put it down" Jeanni

"A great thriller with real emotional punch, and a twist in the tail that you will not see coming." J. Rooney

"This was a delightful, perfect book with smart themes, fantastic emotional character development, and a realistic family dynamic. A great standalone suspenseful crime book." D. Press

“An expertly plotted detective mystery by the best-selling author T.J. Brearton. Kept me reading for a few restless nights.” Chris Child

Who killed a teenager and left the body in the snow?

Mike and Callie Simpkins moved north to restart their lives and get their finances back on track. But their son Braxton withdraws into a dark online world. When he decides to meet some of the players in the real world, tragedy strikes, and the family is torn apart.

Detective John Swift must untangle a web of virtual and real crimes in order to solve this complex mystery. And as the family copes with unimaginable grief, even Braxton’s stepfather Mike comes under suspicion.

Set in Upstate New York, the author brings the area to life with compelling detail, and the descriptions of family life and police work are realistic and involving.

Perfect for fans of Jeffery Deaver, Linwood Barclay, Lisa Unger, James Patterson, Ian Rankin, and Michael Connelly.

DARK KILLS

Who is murdering female college students and can they be stopped?

The only link between the victims is their participation in an unusual psychology experiment. Leading the investigation is Detective Dana Gates. She has a past no one talks about and a husband and daughters she hardly ever sees. She’s a dedicated, by-the-book investigator. And now a serial killer is ripping through the local college campus, and everything she knows is going to change.

T.J. Brearton is the best-selling crime thriller and mystery author of HABIT, SURVIVORS and HIGHWATER, as well as the suspense short story collection GUNPLAY.
