Just about everyone has had at least one dream that we cannot forget! On the other hand, maybe we can only remember a small portion of it so clearly that we see it repeatedly when our eyes are closed. Some of us may have had a dream that gnaws away at us... wondering what the meaning could be, or perhaps have had a frightening dream that seems to be predicting a harsh event or tragedy. Have you been praying for answers about a certain situation in your life? This author believes that dreams are a gift from God to all peoples, another way He communicates with us on a level that we can understand. This book deals with a variety of colors that we may have remembered from a dream, suggesting possible interpretations; using scriptures that may help and a listing of various ways we all are using the colors in today's world. When researching a meaning for a color or colors that we have remembered from our dreams, we just may find an answer...to a prayer.
