To save her life, they must expose their hearts.

Blackfoot Warrior, Book 3

When lady's maid Rebecca Cothorn journeyed westward, she never thought to leave her mistress's side. Yet as Katrina Wellington completes her own journey with White Eagle, Rebecca waits at Ft. Union under the protection of Blackfoot warrior, Night Thunder.

Despite what she's been told about the wild nature of the native tribes, Night Thunder is different. Kind, gentle, honorable to a fault...and handsome in a way that makes her breathless for his next touch.

Though Night Thunder relishes stolen moments with the beautiful white woman, circumstances dictate that he should keep his distance. Until she is stolen away in the night, and he discovers he cannot simply ride into the enemy camp, kill the guilty and sweep her to safety. The thieves are vengeful malcontents from his own tribe, which leaves him only one way to save her from the worst kind of violation.

He must claim that she is his bride. Not only that, she must willingly bare all—heart, soul and body—to claim him as hers.

This book has been previously published.

Warning: Contains warm, sensual love scenes that are certain to have you reaching for your own true Night Thunder.
