Gold Mom's Choice Award--Juvenile Level 9-12

Benjamin "Stubs" Stafford recalls his early years of overcoming a deformed leg and hand since birth. His classmates nickname him "Stubby" even as he works through the process of having a prosthesis. With the love and support of his family, he wins an essay contest that changes his life and the way his classmates look at him. A story of compassion and understanding, The Essay, will educate and encourage readers of all ages.

What People Say

With the insight of an insider, Isabell Niland gives children an opportunity to explore their feelings about differences, bullies, and being bullied. The powerful message of overcoming obstacles and opinions permeates the pages of a book all children can find a part of themselves within.
