Pirates of Somalia and the Navy SEAL Conflict Howard Sullivan

Hundreds of children are kidnapped from their parents by Somalian pirates. The pirates want a hefty bounty that the families cannot possibly afford. With the threat of the children all being murdered, the President of the United States orders his best military men to intervene. He calls on SEAL Team Six. While the SEALs quietly sneak onto the pirate's ship and try and take them all out quickly before any child is hurt, they have more problems on their hands. A British naval ship attacks the pirate ship, unaware of the SEALs secret operation aboard. But as the SEALs race against the clock to free the prisoners from the sinking ship, they come into a gunfight with their worst nightmare. The kidnapped children are being forced to fire on the SEALs who came to rescue them.
