Racing Alone : Fire and Earth, A Visionary Architect's Passionate Quest Nader Khalili

Racing Alone by Nader Khalili "Is it really sane to follow one's ideals and dreams and race alone in today's world?"

Is it really reasonable to insist on holding to one's visions against all odds, and after many trying years?"

The newly published year 2,000 edition of this acclaimed classic chronicles how to sustain a quarter century of quest and inspiration through the arts, architecture, and personal transformation. Published by Cal-Earth Press in beautiful leather-tooled hardback with photographs from the author's original journey.
