What would you do if you found someone you thought might be attractive through online dating and when you met them for sushi they told you they'd been using a fake name online?

I thought it was funny that his name was Buzz. He was good looking and could hold a conversation no problem. That was the best part for me. We got to talking about life and how things were going in the nation.

Then the talk turned to sex. I never thought that someone could be so open and honest with me after just meeting me. It was a breath of fresh air.

What happened next I could have never imagined...

Me + Buzz + sexy waiter = hottest night of my life!
