The Babysitting Society - A Monologue Sally Khan

2Mr and Mrs Johnson, what can I say... sorry, obviously.

As President of the Ramsbottom Babysitting Society, I have never in my three weeks as President seen anything quite like this..."

This is a monologue for a teenage actor and it's about a complete babysitting disaster.

If you're looking for a fun monologue for an audition where you can show some personality, this one is perfect for you.

This monologue also comes with notes from the writer and tips on how to make your monologue and audition stand out.
