LETTERS TO AMELIA Ceidrik Heward

The deeply heartwarming story of a special friendship between Emily, a lost teenager who loves to make paper angels. She is programmed by a woman who pretends to help her to commit a murder, and ends up in prison. During a prison transfer, she escapes and finds refuge in a peaceful garden where she meets Sister Marcia, an elderly, cloistered nun. Emily is re-captured and while in prison, she receives a series of letters from the nun. When their contents start to have a dramatic effect on Emily's life, as well as the lives of thousands of other women, Emily realizes her life has been touched by a real angel.

This is a memorable story about women facing their own personal issues, and the power of love to make life a magical experience. The wisdom revealed in LETTERS TO EMILY also has the potential to change the lives of all those who read this powerful story.
