This book is a collection of columns that I have written for my local newspaper, Town Times (which is owned by the Record-Journal). I've written about anything that strikes my fancy - like the huge mouse in my house that my cat ignores, the trouble I have with electronics, Christmas trees that like to topple over, pre-trip jitters, the world when I was growing up, the joys of a simple life. Hopefully, the reader will be able to relate to most of my musings, and at the very least, will get a good laugh out of them.
