PRAISE for JESS C SCOTT/jessINK:

"[Please] keep up the good work . . . the world can certainly use some more authentic, original work like yours, rather than the same old re-packaged mass-market pulp."

-- Bibrary.com, October 2010

[Jess C Scott] has a voice that should be heard."

-- *R. Simon (Amazon/customer review on The Devilin Fey), 2010*

"[Jess's writing is] raw [and] full of brio. It's very contemporary. It has personality and energy. It deals with modern issues in a very modern way."

-- Joseph Grinton / "Don't Run Away From Sex"

"Jess: I have a few of your pieces on my Nook and I caught my husband reading them the other day. He does not usually like erotica but did yours. He is very conservative, on the outside. He is slowly changing I think."

-- e-mail from a female reader, 2011

"[Jess C Scott] sure [doesn't] screw around with getting into the story."

-- Goodreads.com message, May 2011

EXCERPT (from Rockstar):

Hideki raised the blindfold over Daniel's eyes.

Hideki was in the thigh-high boots he was wearing earlier, but in a short leather skirt this time, which ended just above the top of the black leather boots.

Daniel felt a warmth in his heart--Hideki was a marvellous sight to behold, breathtaking as ever. But Daniel inched back, throat tight, when he saw the knife in Hideki's hand. It was a medium-sized knife.

But even a small blade could cut deep.
