Me llaman Artemio Furia /They call me Artemio Furi (Spanish Edition) Florencia Bonelli

Artemio Furia is not your typical man. His name is mentioned with reverence and fear. Between 1806 and 1807, he served in Pueyrredón's armies to overthrow the Englishmen, and it is said that with a snap of his fingers he is capable of rising up a revolt. Buenos Aires, 1810: the May Revolution is brewing; the patriot faction invites Artemio to join them. As everyone knows, having Furia's backing can mean the difference between victory and defeat.

Spanish Description:

Cuando palpita la Revolución de Mayo en el campo y en la ciudad, contar con las huestes del gaucho Artemio Furia puede significar la victoria.

Buenos Aires. 1810.

Artemio Furia no es un hombre común. Es un gaucho cuyo nombre se pronuncia con respeto y temor en todas las esferas de la sociedad. Entre 1806 y 1807, sus centauros y él sirvieron en los ejércitos de Juan Martín de Pueyrredón para expulsar a los ingleses. Su influencia entre los paisanos es decisiva. Se dice que, con un chasquido de sus dedos, puede sublevar a toda la campaña.

Cuando comienza a gestarse la Revolución de Mayo de 1810, la facción patriótica, la que desea la independencia de Río de la Plata, lo convoca para luchar por la libertad. Contar con las huestes del gaucho Furia puede significar la victoria.

En medio de estas intrigas políticas que pueden acabar con su vida, el pasado oscuro y trágico de Artemio Furia se hace presente. Aunque desearía olvidarlo, el honor lo obliga a hacerle frente con la venganza. En esta otra batalla, Artemio Furia podrá perder algo más que la vida.

Con esta nueva entrega, Bonelli afianza su lugar como la mejor escritora de novela histórica argentina del momento.
