What do you do when you're related to your billionaire boss?
Whatever he wants.

Whips. Handcuffs. Blindfolds. I was not expecting this when he gave me an internship at his company.

The guy I grew up with is now the owner of a multi-billion dollar corporation. He told me if I interned with him over the summer to keep myself out of trouble, he will pay for college. Sounds like a win win situation to me.

Only, he's no longer the guy who slept in the room across the hall when we were younger. He is very precise about what he wants and when he wants it. It's Friday, and he wants green tea. The problem? There's no green tea in the office. Seems silly, but he's the boss. As I tell him that there is no green tea in the office, he is not happy. I then learn that he has acquired a very special and particular appetite for pleasure. He tells me that someone needs to be punished for this oversight.

That person? Me.
