Wicked Sunshine: A Rush Enterprises Novel (Volume 1) Justine Winter

Billionaire. Philanthropist. Manwhore. Grayson Rush is a title sandwich that everyone's trying to snack on, but when it comes to women he has rules that he's been implementing for the past eight years of his twenty-seven year-old life. 1. Condoms are sacred. 2. Never hook up with an employee. 3. No double dipping. He likes his women fresh and their names forgotten, thrown in the bin along with their dignity. He'll profess to being a deity of sex, that his precious Excalibur is the source of all gratification. And the media will attest to that. Satisfaction is his specialty. Pleasure is his mission. But like all great heroes of history's legends, he claims a weakness resonates in his rickety, tattered heart. The premise of more is his Kryptonite. The word alone invokes an instant BD: Boner Destroyer. Why is it, then, when smart-mouthed, twenty-three year-old Maya Kennedy comes waltzing in his office, pitching her creative designer services, that he's suddenly eager to rebel against his own foundations? When his wise younger sister, and best friend conspire against him, he realises that chasing Maya might be just what he needs despite his reservations on romance. Love is a bitch, and her name is Sabrina. Stepping out of his cob-webbed past, he's determined to keep the dust from tainting his future. Can a womanizing Manwhore change his ways, or is Gentleman a title too unattainable?  Due to mature content Wicked Sunshine is intended for readers aged 17/18+ **
