The shaking of US dollar status, debt crisis happening in Greece, Ireland and other European countries and the readjustment of Chinas currency policy All these provide a sign that we are going through a new currency war. Infighting between nations makes the currency war a deadly threat and destructive obstacle to worlds economy, and the new currency war would probably bring a severer destruction than 2008 financial crisis did. Based on the integration of history of economics, social science and science of other fields, this book describes the threatened U.S. national security, the descent influence of U.S. dollar, the challenged European monetary system, the surging economy in China and global completion for gold.
