The Most Interesting People in Politics and History, Volume 2: 250 Anecdotes David Bruce

Print edition. This book contains 250 anecdotes about politics and history, including this one: The Kennedy family was well known for playing touch football, a game that can sometimes be hazardous. Before marrying John F. Kennedy, Jackie Bouvier played touch football with his family-and suffered a broken ankle. And when John and Jackie were finally married, the groom had scratches and bruises on his face from a touch football game he had played earlier that day.
