Falling for Faith (Four Winds) (Volume 4) Anne Conley

In this, the fourth book in the Four Winds Series, the story is more intense, Damien is more intense, the sex is more intense. The entire series thus far has escalated into this, the archangel of war's story. Michael, the archangel of war, is pissed. Humanity has taken every last vestige of any feelings he might have had and colored them in with cynicism. He's ready to be done. So when The Boss gives him the deal, he's eager for his mortality, at any cost, regardless of who he has to 'fall in love' with to get it. Blessed death. That's what he's looking forward to. When he finds out what Faith does for a living, he's pissed off all over again. Faith is a cat burglar, but when she inadvertently makes a deal with Damien, Michael steps in to protect what is rightfully his. She's not over her own tragic past, and this hulking bundle of hotness can't change that. But when he insists on protecting her, claiming her, and dominating her, she is powerless to deny her own emotions. For mature audiences. Contains swear words, sex, elements of BDSM, and possibly heretical viewpoints.
