Spirit Filled Sermons (Pentecostal Pioneers Book 2) Maria Woodworth-Etter

Maria Woodworth-Etter was an outstanding preacher of the Gospel who saw amazing signs and wonders attending her ministry. By the time the Pentecostal movement was born in 1906 Maria, in her early sixties already, had two-and-a-half decades of Pentecostal ministry under her belt!

She was an itinerant evangelist who travelled coast-to-coast across the United States holding meetings in church halls, Gospel tents and public buildings. Though simply evangelistic in the early days, supernatural signs began to accompany her service very soon. People fell into trances, experienced visions of heaven and hell, collapsed on the floor as if they'd been shot or had died. Thousands were healed of a wide variety of sicknesses and diseases and many believers, even ministers, received mighty baptisms of the Holy Spirit.

This book was compiled later in her ministry to share the general content of her spoken ministry.

Chapters:

The first three chapters are a brief overview of her life:

- I. My Birth and Marriage
- II. Preparation for Service
- III. Progress in Preparation
