Family Connections (The Connelly Chronicles) (Volume 1) N.J. Nielsen

Ray and Viv realise love isn't always what they expect it to be, but learning to deal with the road ahead can be worth the heartache. Thrown into circumstances beyond their imaginations, Ray Connelly and Christopher 'Viv' Vivvens must step beyond their personal lifestyles to survive the future. What started out as a small white lie about being boyfriends soon becomes more than they bargained for, especially when family and friends decide to interfere in their lives. However, when tragedy strikes, Ray and Viv must step up and become parents, too. Along the way, they welcome nine children of varying ages, but there is plenty of love to go around. Ray and Viv realise love isn't always what they expect. Sometimes it's downright hard. They also learn that dealing with life's obstacles can be worth the heartache. In doing so, the couple discover how strong they are together. When everything is running smoothly, an ex comes along to ruin their happily ever after. They must fight their past demons to make their future even better. Together they are family in the greatest sense, but do Ray and Viv have what it takes to beat the odds this time?
