Our Father: A Prayer for Christian Living William C Mills

Everyday Christians from across the world recite the Lord's Prayer, the only prayer that we have from Jesus Himself. Despite the fact that Christians are often divided over language, culture, ethnic backgrounds, theologies, customs, and traditions, we are all united under the one authority of God the Father through these very special and meaningful words. When praying the Our Father, we become a single chorus, offering our prayer and praise to God the Father, uniting ourselves in a common bond of love and solidarity. After reading this book, readers will hopefully have a much better understanding of the scriptural background of the Lord's Prayer which will make it more meaningful for them the next time that they say these very special words. The book is a resource for personal and group Bible study, adult education classes, and sermon preparation.
