Aramina, the Priestess, was part of a team of elite assassins in her younger years - back when her very presence tore at the mind and heart of Finnbhear, the Silver Fox: a man whose integrity and sense of duty kept him from falling for her completely. That was before she and her team were retired and the kingdom fell into years of suffering at the hands of her cruel master. Her master is calling for them again. He's asking that they rid the world forever of the only remaining tie to the land: a prince. Obeying this command is an opportunity for one of many things. She and the others could gain more stature in their master's eyes. She could win her freedom. She could find herself back in Finnbhear's arms to stay. Or each of them could finally die in a world where immortality is the norm and magic is the blood that keeps the body alive.
