Lambert's story begins in her youth as a shy child who is a devoted fan of "The Greatest Star". Readers follow her on her quest in "becoming Barbra" and the incredible amount of work involved, from the creation of costumes that are copies of actual Streisand gowns, wigs and makeup, to creating as authentic a show as possible to transport audiences to believing that they are experiencing Streisand in concert. Lambert seeks to answer the most common questions she receives from audience members who attend her shows around the United States and internationally.
