Anna never expected to see Erick Walsworth again. Breaking off their engagement eight years ago was the worst decision of her life. But her bitter regret is nothing compared to pretending she's not still in love with him. Especially while having to watch a perfect girl like Piper Ashley hang on his arm. With circumstances throwing them together and a best friend insisting on playing matchmaker, Anna can't escape the one question she fears most: What happens if she can't convince her first love to give her a second chance?
